

Student Affairs Committee Agenda
March 30, 2023

I. Call to Order and Attendance

- a. Dr. Robert Owens - Yes
- b. Ms. Michelle Huddleston - No
- c. Dr. Susan Wells - Yes
- d. Dr. Diane Pulte - No
- e. Ms. Janet Coonce - Yes
- f. Dr. Chester Goad - Proxy – Beason - Yes
- g. Dr. Cara Sisk - No
- h. Ms. Kashmoney Pride - No
- i. Dr. Nikki Panter - Yes
- j. Dr. Scott Christen - No
- k. Ms. Courtney Brehm - Proxy – Davis - Yes
- l. Dr. Mark Groundland - Yes
- m. Dr. Dennis Duncan - No
- n. Dr. Kevin Harris - No
- o. Dr. Daniel VandenBerge - Yes
- p. Mr. Keegan Bilodeau - No
- q. Mr. Harrison Simpson - No
- r. Ms. Jacob Bruce - No
- s. Ms. Madison Jones - No
- t. Ms. Jessica Massey - No
- u. Ms. Carson Fulford - Yes
- v. Mr. Aaron Stewart - No
- w. Mr. Marc Hardin - Yes
- x. James (JD) Rankin Student - Yes

II. Attendance – Quorum of 13?

III. Review of New Organizations

- a. American Society of Highway Engineers – Tanner Keck
  - i. Tanner received a scholarship of a ASHE branch and learned more about the society.
  - ii. Organization is a benefit to students going into a wide range of fields.
  - iii. Transportation Engineering program enrollment is low, this organization can help to bring people to the program and become more aware of the industry.
  - iv. Site visits to projects.
  - v. Motion – Vandenberge, Second – Owens; Unanimously supported
- b. Busking Club – Garrett Krawczyk
  - i. More opportunities needed for musicians on campus
  - ii. Motion – Owens, Second, JD – Unanimously supported
- c. SAE Aero Club – Ethan Buell & Charles Savage

- i. Building a plane from scratch; complements the other SAE clubs on campus; provides competition experience that enhances engineering and design skills and knowledge.
- ii. SAE is a global organization that hosts competitions among collegiate teams
- iii. Motion – Wells, Second – Coonce;

I. Adjourn