Financial Assistance Request

If a student is experiencing financial hardship that may impact their ability to stay enrolled, they should first seek assistance from the Financial Aid Office. The following webpage provides on-campus and community resources (<https://www.tntech.edu/student/hardship/>). If Financial Aid is unable to help, or additional funds are needed, the School of Music may be able offer financial assistance. Recipients will be expected to contribute a specified number of service hours to the School of Music in exchange for this support. To be eligible, students must complete the following application.
