

Expand your abilities to climb the corporate ladder with an MBA from Tennessee Tech. Our program is AACSB accredited, which represents the highest standard of achievement for business schools worldwide. On-campus or 100% online, choose from among six concentrations to gain knowledge and experience suited to your career.

Business Administration Concentrations* at Tennessee Tech

The master's of business administration program at TTU is designed with you in mind. Whether you just completed your bachelor's degree and are looking to continue to expand your knowledge on campus, or are a busy professional who needs a flexible academic schedule, our program can be customized to fit your needs.

An MBA from Tennessee Tech prepares students from a variety of backgrounds to be business leaders. Our 30-credit hour program means you can complete your degree and be on your way to a rewarding career in as little as three semesters.

We also offer a 100% online option in each of our six concentrations, allowing you to customize your program to fit your busy schedule.

Our award-winning professors teach on campus and online, so you will get the same top-quality educational experience wherever you are. They are committed to instruct you as you learn about the legal, ethical, social, political and economic environments of the business world.

Accounting – For students looking to become qualified to sit for the Tennessee CPA exam.

Finance – For students looking for specialized knowledge in investments, corporate risk management and global financing strategies.

General Management – For students looking to create their own educational experience by combining electives from any discipline.

Human Resource Management – For students looking for an education on the strategic importance of competent human resource management and to complete professional certification exams.

International Business – For students looking to gain specialized knowledge of the unique economic, cultural, political and social differences among countries and how those differences relate to business practices.

Management Information Systems – For students looking to strengthen their abilities in the current business information technology environment.

*All concentrations are available 100% online.

I had been a professional manager for 15 years when I decided to pursue an MBA. I found the faculty to be engaging and helpful and earning an MBA from TTU was a great experience.

— Howard Kirkland,'11

Faculty

Our faculty members are knowledgeable in their fields and stay current with the latest trends and developments. They maintain strong connections with professionals in their industries to help you build a network and launch your career with your advanced degree.

Graduate Assistantships

Several competitive graduate assistantships are available. Graduate assistants will work in the College of Business 20 hours per week and have their tuition and fees waived, as well as receive a monthly stipend.

How to Get Started

Individuals interested in the MBA program can get more information at our website or by emailing mbastudies@tntech.edu.

For more information, visit www.tntech.edu/cob/academic-units/mba