

Student receives call that they are close contact to a positive COVID-19 case and told where to get a test.

On Campus Resident

Off Campus Resident

Student is tested

Student is tested and self quarantines in local residence

Student unable to isolate in local residence or permanent home

Student quarantines in local residence or permanent home

Positive Test

Negative Test

Student moved to quarantine on campus

Negative Test

Positive Test

Positive Test

Negative Test

Student remains in isolation 10 days from test date (if symptoms develop remain in isolation for at least 10 days from testing AND no fever >100.4 x 24 hours and improvement of symptoms)

Student remains in quarantine x 14 days from exposure (if symptoms develop within quarantine period must be fever free x 24 hours and improved symptoms and complete 14 day quarantine period)

Student remains in isolation 10 days from test date (if symptoms develop remain in isolation for at least 10 days from testing AND no fever >100.4 x 24 hours and improvement of symptoms)

Student remains in isolation 10 days from test date (if symptoms develop remain in isolation for at least 10 days from testing AND no fever >100.4 x 24 hours and improvement of symptoms)

Student remains in quarantine x 14 days from exposure (if symptoms develop within quarantine period must be fever free x 24 hours and improved symptoms and complete 14 day quarantine period)

Student assists with investigation and contact tracing

Tennessee
TECH

Close Contact Quarantine
Student Matrix

Updated 8-26-20